Jonathan Rewers, acting SFMTA CFO provided the Committee with a PowerPoint overview of the budget process and specific information on each City agency/department's request.

The Committee reviewed the draft letter and the attachments which will be attached to the letter with no changes.

Committee comments:

Sarah Davis asked about SFMTA revenues that could be used to augment money provided by the Improvement Fund for services in the area.

Bruce Agid stated that metrics will provide a clear "picture" of what service levels are being provided by SFMTA, SF Public Works, and SF Police Department and their associated costs. He also provided clarification regarding percentage of funding allotted to each agency/department. Specifically, there are no department percentage allotments outlined in the MB TIF legislation.

Catherine Sharpe asked about Slide #16 in the presentation regarding actual transit usage.

Manoj Madhavan stated that transit levels/service are down due to staffing shortages.

Bruce Agid made a motion to approve the 2022-2023 and 2023 -2024 budget recommendations as stated in the letter as presented and was seconded by Sarah Davis.

Public comments:

Victoria Chan, SF Public Works stated that the budget Sf PW presented did not include costs associated with emptying trash cans located in some of the Mission Bay parks.

Committee comments:

Catherine Sharpe stated that the letter could be revised to reflect this information.

The motion to approve the 2022-2023 and 2023 -2024 budget recommendations as stated in the letter as presented amended and will include language stating that adjustments might be made if either funds are either not needed for services or if additional funds are needed based on metrics (showing the need for increasing city services).
