

San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency & Bay Area Vanpool Program Vanpool Parking Fact Sheet

The City of San Francisco provides limited reserved vanpool permit parking in several downtown areas. Vanpool parking spaces are not assigned; they are available on a daily first-come-first-served basis. The conditions for approving vanpool parking permit applications are as follows:

- 1) Only vans are eligible for vanpool parking permits. Your van must hold seven to fifteen people. Station wagons and/or passenger vehicle do not qualify. SUV's that carry seven people are acceptable.
 - a. Due to the current health crisis, the occupancy limit of your vehicle can be 50%.
- 2) A van must have at least seven passengers including the driver. San Francisco Municipal Transportation Code ARTICLE 900: PERMITS, SEC. 907(b).
- 3) The permit can be used only in the vehicle for which it was issued. Hang the permit on the rearview mirror with the vehicle license plate facing outside the vehicle.
- 4) Vanpool parking permits authorize vans to park in spaces designated and signed for vanpool parking.

In addition, permits allow vans to park at any signed or metered space in San Francisco with a time limit of 60 minutes or longer, however you must obey all other posted restrictions. Vans with current permits can park at these signed or metered spaces all day for no charge. Be sure to display your permit on the rearview mirror and check that the space has a time limit of 60 minutes or more and is not subject to other restrictions, such as 7-9 AM or 3-6 PM TOW AWAY. Permits do not authorize parking in other types of restricted zones, such as colored curb zones or Residential Permit Parking areas.

The designated vanpool parking spaces are in the following areas:

- Washington Street, north side, between Davis and Battery Streets: even addresses
- Otis Street, east side, between McCoppin Street and Duboce Avenue
- Harrison Street, south side, between 6th & 7th Streets

If you meet all of the qualifications and you would like to apply for an on-street vanpool parking permit, please do the following:
