

SFMTA BLACK & African American Affinity Group (BAAAG)

MTA Board Meeting November 17, 2020

BAAAG's Formation

Formed in 2019 with SFMTA members from the city's Black Employee Alliance out of the urgent necessity to make changes to how Black and African American employees are recruited, hired, promoted, disciplined, and treated in the workplace.

Testimony received from hundreds of Black/African American employees and "Corrective Action and Discipline by Race and Gender" data from San Francisco DHR prompted BAAAG to focus on disciplinary actions.

BAAAG's Mission

- Create an environment that is equitable and inclusive for Black and African American SFMTA employees.
- Support the personal and professional development of employees through various channels.
- Support the Black Employee Alliance's mission and objectives.

Excessive Disciplinary Actions Against Black Employees

Notable Statistics:

- African Americans and Black staff represent more than 50% of disciplinary-charged offenses and resolved actions of all disciplinary actions issued across the agency.
- 88% of disciplinary actions for females were issued to African American and Black women (i.e. 147/167)
- African American men make up 16% of the SFMTA's total male population, but represent 30% of all disciplinary actions issued to all men across the agency.

BAAAG' Actions to Address Disciplinary Actions

- Over the last year, BAAAG met with the Director of Transportation, Jeff Tumlin (previously Tom Maguire), and Director of Human Resources Kimberly Ackerman to address issues of persistent and pervasive anti-Black racism surfacing through disciplinary actions at the SFMTA.
- One year later, there has been no resolution other than the Racial Equity Action Plan, which is in the final draft stage.

BAAAG' Actions to Address Disciplinary Actions

- 1. Issue a moratorium on all disciplinary actions with a commitment to locating processes and practices that will reduce racism in the agency's disciplinary outcomes.
- 2. Identify and locate a restorative justice process that will be implemented to replace the abusive and punitive disciplinary process.
- 3. Require all division directors, supervisors, and managers undergo implicit bias and anti-Black bias trainings.

- The Director of Human Resources, Kimberly Ackerman, implement racial bias competencies into the performance plans of all SFMTA supervisors and managers.
- Plan and dedicate adequate funding and staff resources to create a fully functional racial equity team, rather than one Racial Equity Officer position.
- Provide a plan and deadline to implement all of the recommendations from the Dolores Blanding report.

Next Steps

- Work with other SFMTA Affinity Groups as allies
- WPWAR
- Asian Affinity Group
- Latin-x Affinity Group
- BEA (City Wide)
- Continue to expand our membership
